Jaycee Baseball Grand Slam Coming Up September 6th

It's "Jaycee Baseball Grand Slam" time again and the Appomattox Jaycees are busy preparing for what they hope will be an even bigger, and better event again this year.

"Jaycee Baseball Grand Slam" is open to all boys age 8 thru 13 as of September 6th, and offers competition in running, hitting and throwing a baseball. The contest will be sponsored entirely by the Appomattox Jaycees thru funds obtained during annual profit making projects. The contest will be held Saturday, September 6, 1969 at the Appomattox High School Football Field. The program is scheduled to begin at 1:00 p.m. and the Jaycees urge all boys in this age group to participate.

Incidently, there will be no cost involved for the participants or their parents.

The rules governing each event are as follows:

Running: Each boy will be clocked for the time it takes to circle the bases (on a sixty foot baseball layout.) The time in seconds, substracted from 100 will constitute the score. Each boy will get one trial.

If he fails to touch all bases, he is disqualified for that event.

Throwing: Each boy gets two trials. The longest throw will be recorded. A reasonable distance for a three or four step running approach will be allowed. If a boy steps over the starting line, that throw is dis-

Batting: Each boy will get one warm-up swing which is not measured, and two swings which constitute his trial at bat. The Longest hit will be recorded. If the boy does not make contact with the ball during his two swings, his trial is ended, and no score is recorded for this event. All batting will be done off a batting tee.

No baseball spikes may be worn in the contest. Sneakers are recommended, but street shoes will be allowed. Awards will be presented to the first and second place winners in each of the six age groups.

So follows, cut out the baseball Grand Slam official scorecard which appears in this newspaper, fill it out and bring it with you September 6th, qualified.

Cindy In Parade

Title winners start on the parade routes early in life as witness young Cindy Smith, county winner of this year's title, "Miss Appomattox Dixie Youth Baseball". Martha Williamson is the right hand, front seat passenger with Richard Martin as driver. It was all part of a "Get Out The Vote" parade and campaign Monday prior to Tuesday's second Democratic primary. Behind Cindy's car is a wagon load of boys telling everyone to "vote". As the parade wound down Main Street more and more young passengers jumped "on the wagon" to make it a full load.
